

AUTOMATE, ANALYSE AND ACCELERATE YOUR B2B BUSINESS

profitley

IS THIS HOW YOUR SALES CHANNEL LOOKS LIKE?

Thousands of products with varying price ranges and schemes

Retailer orders when your salesperson visits them personally

Retailer unclear on which items are supplied from his order and which are pending.

WhatsApp, Email, and Phone Order by Retailers

Retailer calls for update on supply of his order.

Salesperson doesn't have retailer's history like orders, pending orders, receivables on the go

Retailer doesn't manage his purchase information so generally orders when out of stock

No single source to view and analyse sales and purchase data.

WHY NOT DIGITALIZE YOUR SALES OPERATIONS & RETAILER'S NETWORK

It is the digital age where your B2B buyers prefer ordering on their own rather than having it done via salesperson. The best solution is a cross-functional mobile-enabled B2B ordering and Order Management app Profitley. Profitley is a ready-to-deploy app for your B2B business and in no time, you will be up and running. With the role-based functionality, it is single platform for use by all - Distributor, their sales team and their retailer network.
